

Learn at Sinai 2019-2020

Adult Education & Programming

Thursday Morning Torah

Spend an hour every Thursday morning with Rabbi David Wolpe deepening your understanding of Judaism and our sacred text.

Thursdays, 8:15 - 9:15 a.m.

Begins October 17, 2019

Free for all

Alice and Nahum Lainer Learning & Lunch

Rabbi Wolpe will explore the lives of remarkable and influential Jews from Biblical times until today, including mystics, kings, businesswomen, scientists and scholars.

First Tuesday of the month, 12:00-1:30 p.m.

Begins November 5, 2019

Free for Sinai Temple members; $25 for non-members

A Woman's Perspective

Led by Rabbi Guzik, this class will explore and discuss holiday, Shabbat and lifecycle prayers. Participants will leave feeling more connected to our sacred liturgy and will find personal and communal meaning in the words of our tradition. Lunch is provided.

Select Tuesdays at 12:00 p.m.

November 12, 2019 and January 14, March 10, & May 12, 2020

Exclusively for Sinai Temple members

RSVPs are appreciated. To register, please contact Rachel Polansky at 310-481-3228 or rpolansky@sinaitemple.org. You may also register for Learning & Lunch and A Woman's Perspective at member.sinaitemple.org/events.