

SOURCES FOR STUDY

Rabbi Shmuel said: The materials donated for the Mishkan correspond to the heavens. "Gold" is the sun; "silver," the moon; "copper," the western horizon at sunset; "blue," the sky; "purple," the clouds; "red," the rainbow; "flax," the seraphim; "goat," the constellation of Capricorn; "rams' skins dyed red," thunder; "tachash skins," lightning; "shittim wood," shooting stars; "oil for lighting," the seven planets; "spices for the anointing oil and for the incense," dew and rain; "shoham stones and gemstones for setting"—hail and snow. Said G d: "My dwelling is in the heavens; if you make Me a Sanctuary on earth, I shall dwell in it."

-Midrash HaGadol

-Rabbi Nicole Guzik, February 9, 2019

TO HONOR THE SANCTITY OF SHABBAT

- Any person coming up to the bimah must have their head & shoulders covered and dresses should be of modest length.
- We do not permit smoking, photography, writing, use of cell phones or other electronic equipment in the synagogue on Shabbat.
- Applause is not customary at any time.

Many members of our congregation have had allergic reactions to perfume or colognes. Please keep this in mind when attending services. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

FOR SAFETY & SECURITY

All children not attending services with their parents must be in one of the supervised children's programs. Temple security will not allow children to congregate in the hallways and will escort them to an appropriate service or program.

TEMPLE ANNOUNCEMENTS

New Shabbat Morning Service Format

Beginning Saturday, February 16, 2019

Our Shabbat morning services will soon have a new format! Introductory Prayers/P'sukei D'zimrah will be in Kohn Chapel at 9:00 a.m. and our Ziegler Sanctuary service will start at 9:30 a.m. The new Ziegler service will be very musical, interactive and family-friendly. Student participation will be encouraged and the clergy will lead teachings throughout the Torah service. The clergy team is very excited to present this new format and we look forward to your feedback. Hope to see you for this first reimagined Shabbat on 2/16- there may even be a surprise or two! Family Minyan services will now start at 9:30 a.m. and Torah in the Round will begin at 10:00 a.m.
