TO HONOR THE SANCTITY OF SHABBAT

- Any person coming up to the bimah must have their head & shoulders covered and dresses should be of modest length.
- We do not permit smoking, photography, writing, use of cell phones or other electronic equipment in the synagogue on Shabbat.
- Applause is not customary at any time.

Many members of our congregation have had allergic reactions to perfume or colognes. Please keep this in mind when attending services. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

FOR SAFETY & SECURITY

All children not attending services with their parents must be in one of the supervised children's programs. Temple security will not allow children to congregate in the hallways and will escort them to an appropriate service or program.

TO HONOR THE SANCTITY OF SHABBAT

The Torah commands that six events be remembered always. Consequently, there are some Rabbis that maintain that the verses containing these commandments be recited daily:

1. Remembrance of the Exodus from Egypt (Deuteronomy 16:3)
2. Remembrance of receiving the Torah at Mount Sinai (Deuteronomy 4:9-10)
3. Remembrance of Amalek's attack (Deuteronomy 25:17-19)
4. Remembrance of the Golden Calf (Deuteronomy 9:7)
5. Remembrance of Miriam speaking lashon Hara (Deuteronomy 24:9)
6. Remembrance of Shabbat (Exodus 20:8)

Kabbalistic literature teaches that it is desirable to recite the six scriptural passages that command us always to bear in mind specific events. Thus, these major themes in our history are kept alive in our consciousness.

-Siddur Kol Ya'akov
-Rabbi Sam Rotenberg

SPONSOR AN ONEG SHABBAT

The Bar Mitzvah of Rojan Gabayan
Saturday, February 23, 2007. I enjoy playing basketball and tennis as well as spending time with friends. My favorite subjects in school are STEM and English. I am thankful for invested and caring parents, a roof over my head, and a good education. I am proud of the Jewish education that I have received for 5 great years here at Sinai. I would like to thank Ms. Danielle Kassin, Mr. Cohen, Cantor Miller, Cantorial Intern David Childs, Cantor Feldman, Rabbi Rosenberg and Rabbi Wolpe for their help and guidance on my Bar Mitzvah journey. I am very excited to continue in our tradition of becoming a Bar Mitzvah!
