

Ruth & Allen Ziegler Sanctuary Service with Rabbi Nicole Guzik, Rabbi Erez Sherman, Cantor Marcus Feldman, and Benjamin Fingerhut

Continuing the traditions of Sinai Temple with a contemplative, educational, and inspiring experience. Teaching and sermons by Rabbi Nicole Guzik and Rabbi Erez Sherman, with the rich, liturgical music led by Cantor Marcus Feldman, accompanied by Music Director Benjamin Fingerhut and our Sinai Temple Professional Choir and Instrumental Ensemble.

Barad Hall Service with Rabbi Bradley Shavit Artson and Cantor Orly Campbell

Traditional liturgy with the musical nostalgia of the Yom Tov accompanied by new melodies of prayer. Rabbi Bradley Artson leads with insightful sermons and engages the congregation in dialogue, exploring the spiritual themes of the Yamim Noraim (Days of Awe). Barad Hall features lay participation, reenactment of the Duchenin (Priestly Blessing), and personal prayers before the ark and during the Yom Kippur break.

Family Minyan with Rabbi Avi Taff and Cantor Rabbi Reuven Taff

Family Minyan is a traditional service characterized by lay participation, explanations and teachings, with a warm sense of community and connection. Individuals, couples, and families with children are invited to attend.

Torah in the Round with Rabbi Gavriella Kornsgold and Cantor Ellen Sugerman

Torah in the Round features a blend of traditional and contemporary liturgy in a High Holy Day service that is designed for the entire community. Adults and families with children are welcome.

