AKLA (achla - adj. or interj. Awesome, excellent, great,) is a fellowship to connect Jewish teens after their Bnai Mitzvah at Sinai Temple with the greater Los Angeles Jewish community. We will explore amazing achievements in technology, medicine and the arts; within the Jewish community.

Our program is designed to inspire teens after their Bnai Mitzvah to create their Jewish journey as part of a sacred community. Applicants should demonstrate a commitment to follow through on projects and a desire to pursue leadership roles.

All applications are reviewed by an independent panel. All costs for selected participants will be underwritten by the David & Janet Polak Foundation.
