A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT MEHRZAD ROSHAN

Our prayers are with all those who have been affected by the recent fires in Los Angeles.

In these difficult times, we understand how fragile our lives are.

Let us pray for those in harm’s way, for the safety of our first responders, and for the healing and recovery of all who are impacted.

May we all find comfort and resilience in each other and our community.

Please don’t hesitate to contact our clergy in the days and weeks ahead so we, as a sacred community, can be there for you.

We are available, along with Carolyn Hoffman, the Director of Sinai Temple Mental Health Center, to offer spiritual and emotional support. Carolyn can be reached directly at choffman@sinaitemple.org or (310) 383-3922.

Shabbat Shalom.

American Universities and the Threat of Foreign Influence in the Post-10/7 World: Rabbi Wolpe in Conversation with Journalist and Author Roya Hakakian

Tuesday, January 21 at 7:00 p.m.

How did a senior Iranian diplomat who had previously whitewashed the regime’s horrific crimes become a tenured faculty member at a storied American college? How do Iran and some Arab states wield their influence upon our universities and fund the campus unrests since 10/7? And what does such influence mean for Jewish life and the future of democracy in America. Renowned journalist and author Roya Hakakian will address these and other questions in an interview by Sinai Temple’s Rabbi David Wolpe. The tireless efforts of the mother of a victim of the Islamic Republic will also be recognized. Scan the QR code to RSVP.

Rock Wednesday!

Wednesday, January 22 from 6:00 – 8:00 p.m.
