A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT MEHRZAD ROSHAN

Dear Sinai Temple Community,

We are excited to announce that Sinai Temple has officially launched a Strategic Planning process—a vital initiative to guide our synagogue’s future and ensure it remains a thriving, welcoming, and meaningful spiritual home for years to come.

This effort, which will take place from now through late fall, is being led by a dedicated Strategic Planning Committee chaired by Richard Weston. We are also partnering with Heather Gowdy and Sarah Raful Whinston from DRG Talent, an external consulting firm with extensive experience guiding synagogues and nonprofit organizations through thoughtful and inclusive strategic planning.

To truly reflect the needs, hopes, and dreams of our wider community, we will soon invite input through a short survey. We are eager to hear from everyone—current members, lapsed members, and prospective members alike. Your voice matters, and your perspective will help shape our future.

We look forward to sharing more in the weeks ahead and thank you in advance for participating in this important journey.
